Tapestry is an art form. The very best quality modern wall tapestries at some of the leading art tapestry stores is an example of how the art has survived since generations. Modern day tapestry blends old and new, using new improved fibers to reproduce classical and famous tapestry art from the past. With the improvements made to pigments and dyes in the last century we can now easily buy faithful reproductions of centuries-old tapestry designs; unseen in such vibrant colors since the time they were originally designed.

Saveontapestries.com is a leading art tapestry store. The online store has tapestries available at very affordable prices. The tapestry art prints are cheaper than framed prints and serve as an art heirloom. The collection includes Tapestry design art by artists of wide acclaim like Raphael. A great master of composition, his drawings were prized and sought after even during his lifetime. Raphael is best known for his Madonna's and for his large figure compositions in the Vatican in Rome.

The collection at SOT also contains Tapestry art by François Boucher. An accomplished artist during the 18th century, Boucher had many of his paintings woven into tapestries during the Renaissance period. He was a French painter and was noted for his pastoral and mythological scenes, whose work embodies the frivolity and sensuousness of the rococo style.

In figure tapestries, the store has stocks of wall hangings styled on the works of Boucher. Examples of his work include some masterpieces like Triumph of Venus and Nude Lying on a Sofa and the tapestry series of Loves of the Gods. His facility with the brush, even when betraying the occasional superficiality of his art, enabled him to master every aspect of painting - history and mythology, portraiture, landscape, ordinary life and, as part of larger compositions, even still life.

One of the best places online to buy genuine art tapestry is www.saveontapestries.com. The online art tapestry store has an amazing range of products to be cherished forever. Latest Collection of Wall Tapestry Rods for Home Interior Decoration

The art of tapestry is one of the most effective forms of literary expressions that the world has ever known. This is a unique form of art that takes you to the ancient history and culture. Woven tapestries tell us the stories of Greeks, Romans, Medieval, and the Renaissance period. In olden days tapestries were used to decorate important buildings and wealthy homes. The tapestries are beautiful, functional and portable. The patterns and scenes that are woven into fabric are inspired from European designs.

A magnificent wall hanging tapestry needs an equally magnificent wall tapestry rod to support it on the wall. A rod is the most common and easiest method of hanging a wall tapestry. It keeps the tapestry straight at the top. Wall Tapestry Rods are available in various shapes, sizes, colors, and designs. One can find rods in brass, wood, and wrought iron. Most of the rods have beautiful decorative end pieces called finial. Finials also come in different designs and shapes. A highly decorated wall tapestry rod augments the beauty of not only the wall hanging, but also adds on the elegance of the room and wall.

Wall tapestry rod should have smooth and even finish, with decorative ends. The design of the rod should be in accordance with the wall hanging tapestry. It should match with the dimensions of the room also. There are some other types of metal rods available in the market with the assortment of finials. Their specialty is that there are extensions available to adjust the length you need. The ends of the rod may or may not be identical. Most of the tapestries have either a pocket sewn into the lining on the back or have a number of loops at the top.

A beautiful wall hanging tapestry can change the entire look of your home. It can change your home into a lovely and elegant place. A highly recommended web store, tapestrycatalogue.com is very popular for good quality wall tapestry rods. Tapestrycatalogue.com is the leaders in high standard and magnificent design wall tapestry, wall hanging tapestry, wall hanging art, and large tapestry. The site is very safe and secure for web shopping. The web store also suggests and advices tapestry rods that match well with the hanging chosen by you.

Selection Of Right Pattern

Fabric-based art is one of the most ancient types of artistic works, which is continuing till date. A tapestry is a fabric-based art, woven by hand on a vertical loom. Tapestries are woven on heavy cloth material, with rich and multicolored designs as well as scenes. They provide an affluent look to your home and depict your taste for a classy and elegant lifestyle. Tapestry wall hangings are one of the important items in tapestry. These wall hangings can be of sceneries, flowers, or representing an era or any historic event of the ancient time.

Tapestry wall hangings need wall tapestry rod to support it on the wall. These tapestry rods come in different varieties and adds on the beauty of the wall hangings. Rods are the most common type of pattern wall hanging. The rods have decorative end pieces called finials that come in different designs, like balls, leaves, and acorn shapes. Rods can be obtained in brass material, wooden material, or wrought iron. Another type of pattern wall hanging is hooks/brackets. Once you fit the rod through pocket or the loops of the wall art tapestries, then you need a supportive system to hold the rod and the tapestry. You can use hooks or brackets that come with the package of rod and wall hanging.

Some of the wall hanging tapestries have a series of rings and bars that are sewn on the lining on the top of the tapestry. Rings and bars help to stick the tapestry close to the wall. Another very interesting type of pattern wall hanging is baseboard. This is very inexpensive but effective way of hanging a tapestry. Once you cut the baseboard into desired length, drill a hole at each end and mark through the holes where the screws will be placed. Now put the baseboard into the pocket and secure the end with screws. Velcro is also a well-known method used to pattern wall hangings. Half of the Velcro is put on the top of the lining and the other half on the piece of baseboard. All these patterns are quite affordable.

To know more about different patterns in wall hangings, log on to www.tapestrycatalogue.com. Get familiar with different terms, like tapestry wall, Bayeux tapestry, and wall hangings through the website. The site will make you know about the latest trends coming into the market.

Enhance Beauty of Home With Large Wall Hangings

A wall tapestry is a type of textile artwork that also doubles up as wall hanging to add beauty and glamour to your home. It consists of colourful fibres that are woven together to produce a design or an image on a fabric. The design of the tapestry often depicts a pictorial scene or a reproduction of a famous painting. In fact most people prefer these to actual paintings as they lend a more personal touch to any place unlike paintings that always belong to the artist more than to the house. Wall tapestries are traditionally rectangular in shape and come in a variety of sizes and is made out of several different types of fabrics such as cotton, wool, linen, silk, and polyester.

Wall tapestries have been used as wall hangings for centuries in churches, palaces, and in the homes of the common man. These were used to serve diverse goals like helping to trap heat in a building or tell stories of religious events or historic battles. They were ideal pieces of artwork because they could easily be rolled up and transported. Even though their functional role has changed, wall tapestries are still much loved items of home décor. These large wall hangings are used nowadays to add an element of style and class to any room. Some still continue to be used as functional pieces of artwork that assist in adding insulation and noise reduction.

Many wall tapestries are presented with tassels for additional enhancement. They are hung on decorative rods and finials that provide an ornamental display for the tapestry.
